

CONTENTS

Maps	xi
Foreword by Wendell E. Pritchett	xvii
Introduction	1

PART I: SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES

1	Charles L. Blockson: Collecting and Marking Black History	9
2	Community Formation in the Colonial City: The Ghosts of Washington Square	16
3	Envisioning Dinah: Stenton's Ongoing Challenge With a Reflection by Karyn Olivier	22 31
4	Richard Allen and Absalom Jones: Leadership in the Center of Free Black Life With a Reflection by State Representative Chris Rabb	33 43
5	The President's House Memorial: P.S. George Washington Slept Here With a Reflection by Michael Coard	46 54

PART II: NINETEENTH CENTURY

6	Pennsylvania Hall: City of Brotherly Love?	59
7	A Pantheon of Heroes: Uncovering Philadelphia's Underground Railroad With a Reflection by Dr. Naomi Johnson Booker	69 77

8	Octavius Catto and A Quest for Parity: A Monumental Statement	80
9	W. E. B. Du Bois and the Seventh Ward: Reviving The Philadelphia Negro With a Reflection by Reverend Dr. Charles Howard	91 100

PART III: TWENTIETH CENTURY

10	First African Baptist Church: Sacred Sacrifices and Real Estate Realities	105
11	Julian Francis Abele: The Unlikely Figurehead of Black Doctors Row	113
12	Alain Locke: Triple Minority and Native Son	123
13	Marian Anderson and Sadie Alexander: A Tale of Two Cities With a Reflection by Jillian Patricia Pirtle	130 138
14	The All Wars Memorial to Colored Soldiers and Sailors: The Prolonged Battle for a Place on the Parkway	140
15	Paul Robeson: The Philadelphia Retirement of a Renaissance Man	148
16	The Brief Life of Malcolm X High School: What's in a Name? With a Reflection by Kenneth Hamilton	157 166
17	Reverend Leon Sullivan: North Philadelphia's Lion of Zion With a Reflection by Mable Ellis Welborn	168 176
18	Cecil B. Moore: Civil Rights Boss With a Reflection by Karen Asper Jordan	177 186
19	Philadelphia's Black Power Movement: Coming Full Circle With a Reflection by Aden Gonzales	188 201
	Acknowledgments	203
	Bibliography	207
	Index	219